

Port Washington High School Library Subscription Databases

Access from the District Webpage (www.pwssd.k12.wi.us): Go to the Schools tab to find Port Washington High School. On this page, go to the About PWHs tab to find and click on Library Resources. At school passwords will not always be necessary; however, you must use passwords when accessing databases from Internet connections outside of the building.

Link	Login/Username	Password
Badgerlink: This contains five very large databases: EBSCOhost specializes in magazine and journal articles (the Student Research Center makes the information more easily accessible), ProQuest has special ethnic news and access to Wisconsin newspapers, Newspaper Archive has articles from papers throughout the world, and LitFinder and TeachingBooks have a wide variety of materials about all types of literature.	www.badgerlink.net
Destiny: This database features the books in our library's collection, and it also includes links to valuable websites on any topic you are researching.
Discovery Education/United Streaming: This resource includes videos and images on a wide variety of topics. Students may download them for projects – citations are included!	Last name and First initial@pwhs (ex. SmithJ@pwhs)	PowerSchool password
Elibrary: This resource includes articles from magazine, newspapers, books, radio/television broadcasts, as well as pictures and videos.	portwashington	remote
Facts on File: There are four reference databases that comprise Facts on File. They include American History , Modern World History , Science , and Literature .	pwhs	library
InfoTrac: There are three databases here. The Student Center has full-text magazine, book and newspaper articles on many subjects, Opposing Viewpoints focuses on providing information on controversial issues – it is great for persuasive writing – and Global Issues in Context provides the latest cultural and political information on countries around the world.	Student ID number	port_log
Magill's Medical Guide: An up-to-date and easy-to-use compendium of medical information. A print version of this resource is located in the PWHs library.	PWHS LIB
Salem Reference History: This database includes ebook versions of some of our great reference books, including The Seventies in America , The Eighties in America , The Nineties in America , and Great Lives from History: Middle Ages and the Renaissance .	PWHS LIB
SIRS: Contains three databases of information from many sources, including magazines, newspapers, books, websites, and primary documents. Includes a great new section on Leading Pro vs. Con Issues.	WI0243	53074
WISCareers: This database is dedicated to helping you make school and career choices. You will find valuable information on these topics, as well as the tools you need to build a resume, plan a budget, and find actual jobs in Wisconsin.	See Guidance
Worldbook Online: An online encyclopedia that also contains a dictionary, atlas, current events, and links to pre-evaluated Web sites.	pwssd	worldbook

PWHS Library Code of Conduct

1. The library is a quiet study area.
 - Only two students are allowed at large tables and sofas; smaller tables and chairs are for individuals.
 - Discussions between students should be focused on academic work, not socialization.
 - Personal music devices (MP3 players, iPods) are allowed, but they must be played at a volume that does not disturb others.
 - Students are expected to abide by the Behavioral Expectations stated in the PWHS Student and Parent Handbook.

2. Students may visit the library during one study hall per day.
 - Sign-in is at the circulation desk and must be done before the bell.
 - Students are only allowed to sign their own names.
 - Students remain in the library for the entire period.

3. Computer use in the library follows all the technology guidelines in the PWHS Student and Parent Handbook.
 - Laptops may be checked out for the period at the circulation desk.
 - Laptops must be used at tables.
 - If all laptops are in use, students needing to complete homework will be given priority over students who want to use computers for surfing or recreational reading.

4. The wooden hall pass can be obtained at the circulation desk.
 - The pass must be signed out and be taken with the student.
 - Only one student may use the pass at a time.

5. Please do not bring food or beverages into the library. You will be asked to dispose of them if they are seen.

A copy of the PWHS Student and Parent Handbook is available for review at the circulation desk.

Violation of the PWHS Library Code of Conduct or the Collective Promises can lead to disciplinary action – please remember, Character Counts!