

Day Two!

- Working with editorial resources tomorrow
- Preview of article analysis assignment
- Work time for summer assignment

Wrapping up Yesterday...

- Responses to yesterday's article
- Connections to summer assignment and today's lesson...
  - Annotation skills
  - Response based on YOUR reading

Focus Today: Editorials

- Opinion ☺
- Separate SECTION of the periodical, usually
- Often a column with the writer's picture in a newspaper of record

What is the Summer Assignment

- Find and print an editorial (not news articles or informational features) from one of the sources below. Annotate the article and answer the questions below with a thoughtful and detailed typed response. Length should be 1-2 pages double spaced with a works cited page.
- Do you agree or disagree with the editorial's viewpoints? Why?
- What are some of the writer's best arguments? Why?

What Do I Turn In?

- Annotated article
- Your typed response to questions (double spaced, 1-2 pages reflecting on your annotations, citations as needed for direct quotations)
- References page (MLA)

What's MLA?!

- MLA format means the way you will show the sources you worked with
- To cite a quotation you put the author's last name and page number in parentheses
- A references page shows when something was published, who wrote it etc. (think Works Cited from research)

Why do I read these?

- Staying up to date on current issues
  - Summer Editorial Assignment
  - Article Analyses
  - Defend/Attack/Qualify essays (i.e. argument)

Class Website Resources

- <http://pwhsaplanguage.pbworks.com>
- Using links to the different sources (summer assignment and beyond)

Practice

- Finding
- Reading
- Annotating
- MLA Review
  - Citation Generators (a word of caution)

Work Time

- Open the different editorial resources (signing up for emails of editorials is encouraged!)
- Look for one to read and annotate for the summer assignment (print!)
  - Let's all choose our own (May to current)
- Make your references page using citation generator
- Annotate the article and begin your written response if time

Debrief

- Share your editorial title
- What is your reaction to it?
